COAST CLIPPINGS.

Fruit peddler's license in San Jose, Cal., is $50 per month. This is a prohibitive rate.

A sharp shock of earthquake visited Oakland, Cal., Saturday evening accompanied by a distant rumbling, similar to the report of a heavy gun.

Herman Gloer, who jumped out of the window of the Capitol Hotel at Sacramento on the evening of the 7th, and fractured both legs, died in San Francisco Saturday.

On Tuesday afternoon as the old horse was steadily dragging around his beaten path propelling the whim at the Isabella incline of the Manhattan Company at Austin, Nev., and drawing up a car heavily loaded with ore, a chain of the whiffletree broke. The arm of the whim swung around with great violence, striking the old horse and breaking three of his legs. The car ran violently down the steep incline and was smashed at the bottom. No one was hurt.

Served Him Right.

Joe Harrison, who was jilted on the 4th of July by Miss Cutler, a fair young school teacher of the Yellow-stone valley, M. T., attempted the same evening to drown himself in the river. His friends rescued him as he was sinking, and on the following morning he called on Miss Cutler. As the young lady entered the parlor, without a word Harrison drew a revolver, and as the young lady screamed he fired three shots in quick succession, each of which inflicted a serious wound. He was seized immediately and carried to jail. On the following night a band of masked men surrounded the jail, disarmed the keepers, and took Harrison, throwing a noosed lariat around his neck, to a tree. Placing him upon a dry goods box, and throwing the lariat over a low limb and making it fast, the box was kicked from under him, and as he dangled in the air a volley of bullets was fired by the masked lynchers which riddled Harrison's body. He was found swinging in the air the next morning by the stage load bound for Big Timber.

The Chief Clerk of the New York City Sheriff's Office, Mr. John A. Lowe, thus speaks of St. Jacobs Oil: "I happen to be one who has been cured by St. Jacobs Oil, and I think that the remedy cannot be excelled for rheumatism. I certainly found it a most pleasant and effective remedy and one which did for me what many others failed to do—cure me. I therefore have a good word for the Oil, whenever opportunity presents itself, for I consider it a splendid remedy."

The Leading Scientists of To-day agree that most diseases are caused by disordered kidneys or liver. The discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure marks an era in the treatment of these diseases. It is a POSITIVE remedy for all diseases that cause pain in the lower part of the body, for torpid liver, headache, jaundice, dizziness, gravel, fever, acute, malarial fever and all difficulties of the kidneys, liver, and urinary organs. It is an excellent and safe remedy for females during pregnancy. It will control menstruation, and is invaluable for leucorrhoea or "white" of the womb. As a blood purifier it is unequalled, as it cures the organs that make the blood. This remedy, which has done such wonders, is put up in the LARGEST SIZED BOTTLES of any medicine on the market, and is sold by druggists and dealers at $1.25 per bottle. AN INTERESTING LECTURE.

Rev. Dr. F. T. DeHass, two years United States Consul in Turkey, in a lecture last night at New York said: "The present disturbance in Egypt is nothing less than a civil war of rebellion against the Sultan and Khedive. Arabi Bey is a restless, ambitious Arab. He has founded a national party and is trying to imitate Cromwell and Garibaldi, and wants to drive out all foreigners, and yet they owe everything to foreigners. There is nothing in Egypt to build an independent Government upon. It would be like the negroes of the South trying to form a government of their own there." DeHass predicted that Arabi Bey would fail utterly in his ambitious projects. He thought a religious war might break out that would spread over Asia, Africa and Europe. Arabi is in league with the new prophet Sinnoussi, and also with Sheereef of Mecca, the spiritual head of Mohammed. In conclusion, he said: "One thing is certain. If this contest goes on the Ottoman Empire falls. The Turks will be driven out of Egypt, the cross will be planted again on Moslem St. Sophia, constitutional government established and 40,000,000 of our race will be emancipated from religious despotism."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The great question for the next Legislature, will be the reduction of the expenses of State and county government. We must find some way to live within our means and to keep down the burden of taxation. This issue should be kept in view by the people in all their political actions. Good business men and taxpayers should be sent to the Legislature with instructions to make all reasonable and wise reductions possible.

A letter will be sent to the editor of the Silver State to-day demanding the name of the Carson correspondent to that journal. We much mistake Kelly if he does not send a prompt reply.—Carson Tribune.

Mr. Kelly no doubt will promptly reply that it is nobody's business who his Carson correspondent is.

In addition to the exhibit from every mineral-bearing State and Territory at the Denver Exposition, Mexico, Honduras, Canada, Nova Scotia and other mining countries will contribute.

Dr. Nathaniel Foster, an old and eminent physician of Cincinnati, died last night of paralysis.

The Egyptian Gazette was published to-day, a native newspaper under control of the British authorities.

It is reported that Mrs. Abraham Lincoln has greatly failed in health during the last few weeks. Her death at any moment would not be surprising.

The members of the Khedive's guard penetrated to within 300 yards of Arabi Pasha's lines. They found reports concerning the proximity of the Bedouins untrue.

The Washington Territory fire. SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.

A Portland, Oregon dispatch has this news from Colfax, W. T., regarding a destructive fire there Friday. The total loss is $350,000; insurance $5,000. The fire was unattended with loss of human life, or serious accident. The entire business portion of the town was burned. Fifty-eight buildings were destroyed and the people are left without supplies. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Preston Powers, of Florence, Italy, has just completed a model for a bust of Garfield, from a photograph by Tibbets, being the same one used for the five-cent postage stamp. Mrs. Garfield and the President's mother were here yesterday and viewed the work. They pronounce it beyond criticism. Mr. Powers started for the East with the bust to-night, from whence it is to be taken to Italy and put in marble. It will be life size and one of the finest ever brought to this country.

CHICAGO, July 17.

A friend of Conkling's, who is in his confidence, says that the story about his returning to political life is absurd. Conkling received a $15,000 fee for doing two days' work for the Steamship Company in securing a veto of the Steamship immigration bill. He received a $15,000 fee for making an argument for the Erie Railway Company. Judge Blatchford has been able to throw a great deal of business in his way, and his fees are simply enormous. It is said, however, that he will help pull the political wires in New York.

Death of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 16.

Alexandria Still Burning.—Arabi Pasha Dismissed from the War Department.

ALEXANDRIA, July 16—10 A. M.

It is reported that Arabi Pasha is awaiting reinforcements from Cairo. Firing was heard outside the town during the night. All available marines and sailors have been sent to the front, in anticipation that Arabi Pasha would attempt to enter the city. A report that Arabi Pasha was marching upon Alexandria caused Admiral Seymour, who did not credit the report, to take extra precautions. The night passed quietly, but it was rumored that fighting occurred at 3 o'clock this morning outside the gates.

Orders have been given to send all marauders to headquarters to be flogged. Incendiaries continue to be shot. Five rebel soldiers captured by marines have been handed over to the Khedive, and will be shot by the loyal troops.

The Khedive has dismissed Arabi Pasha from the Ministry of War. The fire continues and the aspect of the town is indeed horrible. It reminds the spectator of Pompeii. Whole families of Christians have disappeared. It is believed they were thrown into the flames.

The Condition of Things.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 16.

The condition of the Turkish intervention in Egypt is understood to be as follows: The occupation of Egypt to be limited to three months, at the expiration of which the Khedive can demand prolongation. The cost to be defrayed by Egypt. The European Commission are to accompany the Turkish troops. It is believed the Porte will refuse to dispatch an expedition. The Secretary of the British Legation visited the Porte for the first time since the bombardment. He was cordially received. The Suez commander of Iran, sent a peremptory message ordering Egyptian men-of-war not to leave Suez until he has received instructions. The order was issued because the Egyptian commander intended to take vessels through the canal. Captains are no longer cautioned before entering the canal, but all vessels are thoroughly searched before proceeding.

The Situation Unchanged.

LONDON, July 16.

"A correspondent telegraphed from Alexandria, 15th, 8 P. M., as follows: An engagement is imminent between the English troops and Arabi Pasha. I have visited all the hospitals and cannot speak too highly of the devotion displayed by the Sisters of Charity. While some inmates of the hospitals, including both Sisters of Charity and patients were being escorted by German marines to the beach, they were challenged by English sentries. As they were unable to give the password in English they were fired upon. The Germans returned the fire, but happily no one was hurt. English sailors to-day dogged 10 Arabs. The Arabs were guilty of arson, rape and pillage. Five men were publicly shot —four for murder and one as a spy. Hundreds of persons are homeless and starving."

The Americans at Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, July 16.

A correspondent says: I visited the American Consulate to-day and found it occupied by sixty American marines and twenty sailors and small guns. The houses around being on fire. The Americans were preparing to blow them up in order to save the Consulate. How the Americans managed to get gunpowder into the square is a mystery, as the air was literally full of sparks. However, they succeeded and brought it down to the houses in the vicinity of the Consulate and Palace of Justice. So bad was the condition of the streets that American marines insisted on guarding us to our landing place. Many cut-throats being abroad. The English occupy the Palace of Justice as their guardhouse consulate. The French have taken Abbot Hotel for a similar purpose.

Arabi Still Preparing for War.

PORT SAID, July 17.

There is an immense number of refugees here. Many women and children are expected here to-day. Europeans are imperfectly armed with revolvers and sporting guns. They fear being attacked by a large force of Bedouins, which, it is stated, is assembling in the desert. It is also reported there are 1,500 Arabs at Fort Gelm, six miles hence, throwing up earthworks.

Three British, four French, two Italian and one Spanish men-of-war are in the harbor. The Governor is loyal to the Khedive, but an Egyptian Colonel, who commands 250 men here, is suspected.

An Attack Threatened on Port Said.

LONDON, July 16.

The Times has the following dispatch, dated Alexandria July 16th: It is stated that Arabi Pasha is marching on Port Said with 1,500 men and that a large force of Bedouins is apparently following them.

The corpses of the slain Europeans, some of those of women, are floating in the harbor. A detachment of Greek sailors saved the Greek Catholic Church, European Hospital and Italian Consulate.

GOOD NEWS.

Six-Times-a-Week Mail Service From Reno to the Outlying Northern Counties.

Mrs. Ida B. Camphausen, the mail contractor on the route between Reno and Cedarville, returned from Washington last night, where she went about three weeks ago to ascertain why our daily mail service north had been discontinued to a weekly service, and to see if she could not have the order rescinded and the old service reinstated. Her mission was quite successful, as the following order from the Postmaster-General to Postmaster Jamison will show:

WASHINGTON, July 10, 1882. SIR:—The contractor on route No. 46,162, from Cedarville to Reno has been instructed, in pursuance of an order of the Postmaster-General, to increase the service to six trips a week. This order is to take effect August 1, 1882, and you will report if it is complied with. Respectfully,

H. D. LYMAN, Acting Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

Mrs. Camphausen found Senator Jones and Congressman Cassidy much interested in the matter, and they paid her every attention and rendered her all the assistance in their power to give the people of this town and the outlying northern country close communication. Senator Fair, she says, did not assist in the matter, but on the contrary he, after recommending a daily service, withdrew his recommendation and told the Postmaster-General that we did not need a daily service. Senator Fair on his way west a few days ago told a GAZETTE reporter the same thing. It would seem from Senator Fair's position that he allowed himself to be influenced by Berry of California, who was anxious to have this route discontinued in order to continue a daily service via Chico and Redding, to the detriment of a large portion of his (Fair's) own constituency. Congressman Cassidy is entitled to much credit for the interest he has taken in the matter. He has been corresponding with the proprietor of the GAZETTE for several months, gathering information for him to act intelligently with in the department. In several interviews with Hon. H. J. McKusick, the Coast postal agent, the matter has been

PUT IN ITS BEST LIGHT.

Caldwell & Ayers, the proprietors of the line, left here yesterday morning to take the stock from the line. T. K. Hymers, agent for the stage company, dispatched a messenger this morning north to overtake the men and inform them of the new order. The deserted line will be restocked and the daily trips continued. It is said that Mrs. Camphausen is the only female mail contractor in the United States, and one of the most successful lobbyists in America. Her success in this matter proves her to be a first-class business woman.

CANAVAN'S CANE.

How the Doughty Democrat Defended Our Honor When Assailed by a Britisher.

The Chronicle tells how Captain Roper, of the Anger Head, and Capt. Canavan, of Virginia, fell afoul of each other in a Demo-political discussion in San Francisco last Friday night. The bold Britisher was spoiling for a quarrel, but as long as he confined himself to denouncing the Republican party all was well and the company drank with him in the most cordial manner for a dozen rounds or so. When the barkeeper filled the whisky bottle from the jug for the third time, he launched out in a tirade against "this bloody, blasted country, which was run by a pack of Yankees, whom English dogs would not bite for fear of breaking their teeth." Pete Hopkins' Democrats murmured a little at this, but did not yet take active reprisals. The matter grew more serious, however, when Captain Roper included the Democratic politicians into his category of abominations; but when he threw out some very vigorous hints about Irishmen and their superiors, the Chinamen, open war was at once declared. Matt Canavan broke in with "now then take that back, you bald-headed son of a Queen Vic." Captain Roper expressed his hope that his Satanic Majesty might swallow him if he took back one word. "Then take that!" shouted the irate Virginian, and before anybody had time to interfere, Captain Roper's rubicund visage was brought in contact with Canavan's cane. Immediately the Captain set up such a cry that the night clerk of the hotel thought that Pete Hopkins had gone into the pig-sticking business. Roper rushed out of the saloon into the office, wildly shouting for the American police. Not finding this never-to-be-found institution, he hid himself into the street, where he hailed a cab. Into this he got. Previously ordering the driver to take him to the police office. He threatened to return with an officer for the arrest of his assailant, but though the assembled Democrats promised to wait, nothing more was seen of the doughty Captain. He kept himself invisible all day yesterday, for the longitudinal parallel which ornaments the port side of his nose, has put him sadly out of his reckoning.

WAR AT WADSWORTH.

A Small Army of Tramps Try to Run the Town, but Get Worried.

Swarms of tramps have been recently seen at different points of the State, and several towns have suffered by them. On Saturday a lot of them passed Hot Springs Station, stopping long enough to go through the section house and take what they cared for. In the course of the day they filled Wadsworth to such an extent that the citizens became alarmed, and, organizing an impromptu safety committee, ordered them to leave. It is said they were plotting to TAKE THE TOWN.

But a colored woman, who was a member of their gang, gave them away. They crossed the river about 6 o'clock, and soon after the section man went into town and told Superintendent Frank Free that they had stolen a hand-car and gone west with it. He immediately got out an engine and started in pursuit. A few miles out he found a platform car turned bottom side up down the bank. The track man said that was not the one, so they continued their way cautiously, expecting to come to the car at any minute. At Salva Station, seven miles from Wadsworth, they came up to the gang, and it now being about 9:45 o'clock and quite dark, no one could tell whether they had a car or not. The engine was stopped as quickly as possible, but it ran past them a little. It was backing up, and on the pilot sat George Gregg, master mechanic, with the section men and some from the Wadsworth yard and shops. As the engine passed the tramps yelled out, and when it stopped they came towards it on the run with sticks and clubs in their hands. Mr. Gregg says one of the tramps was shouting

"GO FOR THEM!"

And he ordered them to halt. They kept coming and he said: "Stop, or we will shoot." As they failed to stop, some of his party fired, and five shots in all were poured into the band, to which they returned two shots. The crowd dispersed in quick time, leaving one of their number on the field. He was found to be shot through the fleshy part of both legs, half way between the knee and the thigh. He was taken to Wadsworth, his wounds dressed, and he was sent to Reno on the morning train to be taken to the County Hospital. A GAZETTE reporter interviewed the young man at the depot. He seemed to be resting easy; in fact he sat up in a chair and seemed to regard it as a very small matter. His name is R. McNulty, and he is from Poughkeepsie, New York. He is a bright but dusty-looking young man, of light but active frame, with a brown mustache and a month's beard on his face. His story is that he is of a party of seven innocent vagrants, while another gang of about the same size is full of drunken roughs, who happened in at Wadsworth when his crowd was there.

THE BAD CROWD

Got to drinking and raising a row, and the people ordered them all out. He says his company went first, and had nothing to do with taking the car. When the engine came up they shouted to the engineer to let them ride, and when he stopped they thought he intended to do it. They rushed up to get on and met the bullets about half way. He had no gun, and there was no weapon except walking sticks in his party. This morning Jake Lewis came up on the freight and picked up seven of the tramps at Clark's and two near the mouth of the canyon. He lodged them in jail and started to Glendale, where he heard there were four more of the gang. He found one of them and brought him in. He put eight of them in the calaboose. Those in jail give the names of Charley Edwards, Charles Pierce, Harry Sanford, David Berry, Henry Hoffman, W. S. Eaton, Wm. Deemer, Wm. Walker, and John Aster, John Wright and Andrew Canada in the calaboose. They will have an examination at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

A FATAL BLOW.

An Officer Kills a Man With a Rock at Truckee While Making an Arrest.

A stranger from San Francisco, giving his name as William Roslof, commenced chasing different men off the plaza and sidewalks at Truckee Saturday night threatening them with a large drawn pruning-knife. Officer Reed started to arrest him, when Roslof turned and made a lunge with the knife at the officer. Reed stepped back a few feet, and seizing a rock threw it at him, striking him on the head. Roslof, although paralyzed for a moment, turned and made a second lunge at Reed with the knife. Reed then threw another rock at him, this one striking Roslof a little above the left temple, fracturing the skull. Dr. Curless was at once called and removed from the inner brain ten pieces of the skull bone. Roslof is not expected to live. He was at the time of his accident supposed to have been crazy or very much intoxicated.

Black and Blue.

A big buck nigger stole a suit of navy-blue clothes from the Golden Eagle Hotel last Saturday evening. The clothes were too small for the darkey and the big was too big for the clothes, which he undoubtedly disposed of at a bargain. He reported himself a cook who had worked in hotels both east and west of Reno.

ASYLUM DANCE.

The Insane Patients Enjoy the Waltz—An Interesting Party.

Saturday evening Dr. Dawson called about 50 of the insane patients into the large recreation-room on the second floor of the Asylum building to try the effect a dance would have on them. Alex Case, one of the attendants, and a patient furnished good music. Asa Dawson, acting as floor director, assisted by the male attendants and Mrs. Walker, the matron, Miss Maud Crawford and Mrs. Egar. They formed twelve couple of cranks on the floor for a plain quadrille. During the dance the patients acted well and seemed to enjoy it. After the quadrille a polka was called and heartily enjoyed by the unfortunates as well as the few visitors present. An Italian, one of the worst cases in the building, invited a little German woman to join him in the polka. He seemed to be anxious to waltz, while his partner thought a polka or schottisch would be the correct thing, and away they went, one dancing a waltz (or as near a waltz as anything) while the other endeavored first to polka and then to schottische, neither of them paying the slightest attention to the music or time. There were 34 male and 14 female patients in the room and, with two exceptions, the party was enjoyed exceedingly. A Mrs. Duffy, who had been confined at Stockton with her hands strapped since 1874, was one of the number, and a woman who was kept bound hand and foot while at Stockton was also present. One man who was closely confined and strapped hand and foot while under the care of the Nevada contractors was in the hall. The three patients referred to show one of two things—either that Dr. Dawson's treatment is doing them much good and that they are rapidly recovering, or that Dr. Clark was criminally cruel and incompetent in his treatment of Nevada's insane. Mrs. Walker, Miss Crawford and Mrs. Egar are worshiped by the patients and have acquainted themselves so thoroughly with each individual case that they seem to anticipate the wants, likes and dislikes of those in their charge without asking any questions or waiting for any instructions from any quarter. Dr. Dawson has been equally fortunate in the selection of his male assistants. N. J. Cooley and J. J. Linn have charge of one ward. Mr. Cooley was employed in the Illinois State Asylum for four years, and is thoroughly up in his duties, while Mr. Linn has had large prison experience, which eminently fits him for the duties he is required to perform. The other attendants, whose names a GAZETTE reporter failed to get, are proving themselves valuable assistants. Professor Charles Leggett is the chief cook at the institution and, as his friends know, is filling the position with ability. He is an excellent man for the place. Superintendent Dawson proposes to allow the patients to have a dance once a week.

A Hungry Pair.

Dick Kelly is about as handy at a free lunch table as any of the boys. He and Ben Bacon, of Verdi, dropped into Jake Becker's this morning, called for a glass of beer, and, laying down a paltry quarter in payment, walked back to the lunch stand and devoured 75 cents worth of cheese, 15 cents worth of bread, 20 cents worth of corned beef and a large plate of pickled sheep's tongue while the barkeeper was drawing the beer. Becker very properly informed them that he could not afford to allow them to eat $1.10 worth of lunch and drink two quarts of beer for 23 cents, whereupon they picked up a dollar belonging to another gentleman and blew that in against the game. They are a hard crowd to be given the freedom of any small town.

Death at the Hospital.

W. O. Winfrey, who was discharged from the State Insane Asylum last Friday afternoon, and committed to the County Hospital the same day, died at 10 o'clock last night. Mr. Winfrey was committed to the asylum from this county about three years ago. He was a brother to J. P. Winfrey, of this town, and was about 48 years of age. This man caused quite a controversy between the State and county officials the day he was committed, as to who should be at the expense of keeping him.

Sheep for the North.

Newton Jones, of Lassen county, Cal., is coming from Merced county with 3,300 head of sheep en route to Honey Lake valley. Levy, Bros., of Los Angeles, have 10,500 head grazing in the vicinity, which they intend driving to Honey Lake soon. They will cross the river at Hunter's bridge, five miles up the stream, and pass north, west of town.

If Not Why Not?

L. Smith of Pleasant Valley is having a nice house built by Captain Frank Cook. Mr. Smith, up to the present time has lived a bachelor's life. What he means to do is not the GAZETTE's business.

A Large Drop.

A drove of 5,000 sheep passed through town late Saturday evening, from Merced county en route to a range near Susanville, Cal., where they will be cared for during the Summer and Fall.
